

Health Equity: A Snapshot of a PolicyLab Research Portfolio

Date:

Oct 2018

Download Material

PolicyLab's Health Equity research portfolio seeks to better understand the many factors that contribute to disparate health outcomes for children, including addressing social determinants of health outside the health system, improving provider-patient relationships and enhancing access to services. This portfolio also develops solutions that stakeholders can implement to promote child health equity.

Topics

Equitable Access to Services

Related Content

Implicit Bias in Pediatric Academic Medicine

A Portrait of Disadvantage: Understanding Poverty's Influence on Child Development

Ensuring Comprehensive Care and Support for Gender Non-Conforming Children and Adolescents

Ensuring Providers Have the Knowledge and Support Needed to Care for Transgender Youth

Refugee Health Care in the United States