

Antipsychotic + Antidepressant Combo May Double Diabetes Risk for Youth

Date:

Monday, Apr 06, 2015

This article discusses research findings from Dr. David Rubin that found initiating antipsychotics may increase a child's risk for for Type 2 diabetes by nearly 50%, and the risk may double if also taking antidepressants.

Source:

Monthly Prescribing Reference Visit Link