Dr. Rhonda Boyd Receives Service Award

Date:

Friday, May 31, 2019

Congratulations to PolicyLab researcher Rhonda Boyd, PhD, who was recently the co-recipient of the Service to SPR award from the Society for Prevention Research for her roles as co-chair of their Prevention Science's Role in Reducing Disparities and Promoting Equity Task Force and chair of their Diversity Network Committee. This award recognizes those who make a significant impact in the field of prevention science. You can read more about Dr. Boyd's research and interests here and the Society for Prevention Research here.
