On November 4, 2019, PolicyLab hosted “Equity, Affordability & Quality: A Roundtable on Medicaid & CHIP’s Future for Youth.” During this event, we assembled children’s health experts with the goal of outlining effective, evidence-based health policy issues and solutions ripe for action and collaboration. We had a productive discussion, which resulted in several themes on actions we must take to maintain equitable, high insurance rates among our nation’s children, allowing them to be their healthiest selves.
