Children's Hospital of Philadelphia
PolicyLab

Brief Intervention Tied to Lower Repeat Suicide Attempt

A PolicyLab study, which found that brief encounters with health care providers reduced the risk of subsequent suicide attempts and improved access to follow-up care, was featured in an article.

Source:

MedPage Today

Visit Link