Children's Hospital of Philadelphia
PolicyLab

Pandemic Saw Rise in Depression Among Adolescents and Young Adults, Study Says

PolicyLab researcher Stephane Mayne, PhD, MHS, was quoted in an article discussing her team's study that found the number of teens & young adults who screened positive for depression & suicide risk increased during COVID-19.

Source:

The Washington Post

Visit Link