Register for PolicyLab Forum 2022—Early Bird Pricing Ends Feb. 15!

Date:

Friday, February 11, 2022

Don't miss out on early bird pricing—prices for regular registration increase on Feb. 16.

PolicyLab Forum 2022, hosted in partnership with AcademyHealth, is just a few short months away. This exciting event—happening in-person May 9-10, 2022, at the world-renowned Kimmel Center in Philadelphia—is intended to propel forward innovative solutions for important topics such as aiding schools with COVID-19 recovery, the youth behavioral health crisis, addressing social needs in pediatric settings, caregiver health and much more.

We are also excited to share a few of the newly announced leaders in children's health who will be speaking at the forum:

- Stacey Stewart, MBA, president & CEO of March of Dimes
- Kevin Fiori, MD, MPH, MSc, director, social determinants of health at Montefiore Health System's Office of Population and Community Health
- Wendy Cervantes, MA, director of immigration and immigrant families at the Center for Law and Social Policy
- & more!

Find more details here, and be sure to register today! You have until April 22 to get your ticket.
