Register for PolicyLab Forum 2022—Ticket Sales End April 22!

Date:

Wednesday, April 13, 2022

PolicyLab Forum 2022, hosted in partnership with AcademyHealth, is just a few short weeks away! This exciting event—happening in-person May 9-10, 2022, at the world-renowned Kimmel Center in Philadelphia—is intended to propel forward innovative solutions for important topics such as aiding schools with COVID-19 recovery, the youth behavioral health crisis, addressing social needs in pediatric settings, caregiver health and much more.

We recently released our full speaker program, which includes an exciting lineup of leaders in children's health who will be speaking at the forum.

Find more details here, and be sure to register today! You have until April 22 to get your ticket.
