Department of Homeland Security Request for Comment: Proposed Rule on Public Charge Ground of Inadmissibility

Download Material

PolicyLab experts welcome this opportunity to comment on the Proposed Rule on “Public Charge Ground of Inadmissibility” and to offer our recommendations.

In this response, PolicyLab experts highlight some key elements of the proposed rule that they support, changes that they believe are still necessary and additional considerations for the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) as it considers how to implement this final rule.

Authors: Caroline La Rochelle, Kate Wallis, Diana Montoya-Williams, Emily Gregory, Senbagam Virudachalam, Meredith Matone, Peter Cronholm, Ariel A. Williamson, Jennifer Whittaker

Related Content

- The Case for Congressional Action on Public Charge
  Blog Post
  Oct 27, 2021
- Thawing the Chill From Public Charge Will Take Time and Investment
  Blog Post
  Apr 13, 2021
- Department of Homeland Security's Request for Comment: Public Charge Ground of Inadmissibility
  Tools and Memos
  Oct 2021