

Reflecting on 2022 as we Enter the New Year

Date:

Wednesday, December 21, 2022

Before we close out the year, our team had some fun reflecting on a busy 2022. Join us for a trip down memory lane as we:

- 1. Counted down the five most-read blog posts of the year
- 2. Revisited the excitement of PolicyLab Forum 2022
- 3. Asked our colleagues to share highlights and accomplishments from their professional lives in 2022
- 4. Captured memorable moments from our annual holiday party and office decorating contest

What a year!

Now, we look forward to continued work alongside our partners and collaborators in 2023 across research, policy, and programs to improve the health and well-being of youth and families.

From all of us at PolicyLab, Happy Holidays!
