

Protecting Children from Tobacco and Nicotine, How Homelessness and Disability Intersect

PolicyLab researcher Dr. Brian Jenssen discusses how recommendations from a new policy statement and related reports on protecting children from tobacco and nicotine can be helpful for pediatricians working with youth and families.

Source:

Pediatrics On Call Podcast

Visit Link