Cerridwen Cox

Senior Grants Coordinator

Cerridwen Cox (she/her) is a senior grants coordinator at PolicyLab and Clinical Futures at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP). In this role, she provides support to the interdisciplinary PolicyLab and Clinical Futures faculty and manages grant writing and submission functions to maximize essential support for CHOP researchers. She facilitates communication among team members and with the Sponsored Projects Office, organizing the submission process and providing writing, editing, project planning, and budgeting services.

Cerridwen brings diverse experience to the team, previously serving as a grants writer for Center for Family Services and developing her skills in various roles in social service-focused non-profit organizations. Cerridwen received a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science – International Relations from West Chester University, focusing on Spanish language and Latin American/Latino Studies. As part of her capstone project, Cerridwen researched push and pull factors in the immigration of individuals from the Northern Triangle of Central America (Guatemala, Honduras, and El Salvador) to the Philadelphia region.
