Administrative Manager

Holly Burnside is an administrative manager at PolicyLab and Clinical Futures at Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP). In this role, she oversees the grant writing support team that provides investigators in PolicyLab and Clinical Futures with research and proposal development services. She also manages the PolicyLab and Clinical Futures biannual pilot grant competition, the Clinical Grant Proposal Success (GPS) program, and other research development activities.

Holly joined CHOP in 2015 after nearly 10 years in similar research and faculty support roles at Drexel University's College of Engineering. She received a Master of Science in Science Communication from Drexel University. Holly is an active member of the National Organization of Research Development Professionals (NORDP) and currently serves as co-chair for the NORDP Mid-Atlantic region.
