The Pew Charitable Trusts Awards $1 Million Grant to PolicyLab at Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia

Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP) today announced a $1 million grant from The Pew Charitable Trusts (Pew) to support PolicyLab, a Center of Emphasis within the CHOP Research Institute that researches, develops, and implements evidence-based solutions that are responsive to community needs and relevant to child health policy priorities. The award will enable PolicyLab to continue its mission of bringing rigorous academic and community-partnered research to pressing policy issues.

Source:

BioSpace

Visit Link