Children's Hospital of Philadelphia
PolicyLab

Most Young Children with Intracranial Hemorrhage Should Have Skeletal Survey

PolicyLab researchers Christine Paine and Dr. Joanne Wood developed guidelines for determining which children with intracranial hemorrhage should undergo evaluation with skeletal survey for additional injuries concerning for abuse.

Source:

Consultant for Pediatricians

Visit Link