PolicyLab's Dr. Senbagam Virudachalam: Health Begins at Home

Date:

Friday, August 22, 2014

Dr. Senbagam Virudachalam wants to ensure that parents of young children have the skills and confidence to regularly prepare healthy food at home. Read Philly.com article about Dr. Virudachalam's work and a new CHOP and Aramark initiative, "Home Plate." See Dr. Virudachalam's research and bio for more information.
