New PolicyLab Team Member Opening: Resident Post-Doc Fellow

Date:

Wednesday, May 24, 2017

PolicyLab is hiring a resident post-doc fellow to support our work around behavioral health. This position would lead the implementation of an innovative parent-training program housed in a pediatric primary care setting and support the development of an infrastructure to respond to social and behavioral health needs of families served by Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. The implementation fellow will work in close collaboration with PolicyLab and Safe Place leadership and staff, partners from private provider child welfare, behavioral health, and home visiting agencies, as well as other key institutional and city stakeholders. The fellowship duration is two years.
